Babika

Inspired by a 16th Century Czechoslovakian witches brew this mystical vodka is distilled in the Czech Republic and infused with wormwood and special herbs. A unique floral bouquet and creamy flavour.

£35, from Harvey Nichols

Chase Vodka

Chase uses traditional methods to produce a fine vodka with true provenance; after two years in the making the first bottle was produced in April 2008 from the same potatoes as Tyrrell's crisps. This is a smooth artisan vodka, with a full-bodied, creamy feel.

£31, Waitrose

Black Moth Vodka

Made with European Périgord truffles this is one of the finest, all natural, truffle infused vodkas. Five times distilled and three times filtered it delivers a warm and mellow taste and an exceptional finish.
